As such, any information, data or services provided through the Electronic Broking Facilities should not be relied upon in relation to any investment decision, Trading activities or orders placed by the Client who shall, at all times, rely on its own assessment and judgment in respect of any investment decision or proposed transaction.
- 5.4 The Broker shall not be under any obligation to review the status of the Client Account for compliance with any applicable margin requirements. Notwithstanding this, the Broker may, in its sole and absolute discretion, review the status of the Client Account for the purposes of ensuring compliance with any applicable margin requirements provided that the Broker shall bear no liability whatsoever for any such review.

6. RIGHTS OF ACCESS

- 6.1 The Broker shall bear no liability and shall not be responsible for any loss or inconvenience that may be suffered by the Client as a result of any action by any regulatory body in the exercise of its regulatory or supervisory functions over the Broker. The Client shall permit the Broker and/or any regulatory to have access to such terminals as the Broker and/or the regulatory body may request, and the Client shall co-operate in answering any of their queries in relation to any aspect of the Electronic Broking Facilities.

7. SECURITY

- 7.1 The Client shall at all times ensure that the integrity and the security of the Electronic Broking Facilities are preserved and maintained. Accordingly, the Client shall ensure, inter alia, that there is no unauthorised use of the Client's user I.D., password and/or PIN. The Client shall forthwith on being aware of any unauthorised access or theft of the PIN(s) or security code(s) notify the Broker and provide such particulars as the Broker may require.

CLIENT AGREEMENT (Corporate)

- 7.2 The Client shall bear the sole responsibility of complying with the obligations under this Clause. In the event that the Client breaches its obligations under this Clause, the Client shall indemnify the Broker for any loss that the Broker may suffer as a consequence of such unauthorised access and use.

8. RISK WARNING

- 8.1 The Client hereby represents and declares that he understands and accepts the following associated with trading using the Electronic Broking Facilities:
- (a) that electronic trading and order routing systems differ from traditional open outcry pit trading, and that transactions undertaken using an electronic system are subject to the rules and regulations of the exchange(s) offering the system and/or listing the contract. In this connection, the Client hereby undertakes, prior to engaging in such transactions to familiarise itself with, and from time to time to keep itself updated on, the rules and regulations of the relevant exchange(s) offering system's and/or listing the relevant Derivatives, and to understand, among other things, the system's order matching procedure, opening and closing procedures and prices, error trade policies and trading limitations or requirements; and
 - (b) trading through an electronic trading or order routing system exposes the Client to risks associated with system or component failure. Such systems or component failure may result in the inability to enter new order, execute existing orders, or modify or cancel orders previously entered, as well as a loss of order or order priority.

(End of the Third Schedule)

FOURTH SCHEDULE

(In the case where the Client trades in CFD Transactions, this Schedule shall be deemed incorporated in this Agreement.)

1. CFD ACCOUNT

- 1.1 The Client agrees that for the purposes of trading in CFDs, a separate account shall be established by the Broker for the Client known as the "CFD Account". The Client's trading of CFDs shall be through the CFD Account and shall comply with the terms and conditions of this Schedule, which shall apply in addition to all other applicable terms and conditions under this Schedule and the relevant account opening form and all other rules, guidelines and documents of the Broker pertaining to trading in CFDs as the Broker may issue from time to time, including the CFD Product Highlight Sheet (as discussed in Clause 2 of this Schedule).
- 1.2 An account limit on the CFD Account will be set by the Broker, and may be varied from time to time according to the Client's credit status and the amount of funds deposited with the Broker. The Client agrees that the Broker may, in its sole and absolute discretion, apply a limit to:
- (a) the size of any order or CFD Transaction or series of orders or CFD Transactions which the Client may enter into; and/or
 - (b) the amount of any loss or liability to which the Client may be exposed with respect to its trading (including unrealised loss determined on a marked to market basis by the Broker in good faith).
- 1.3 The CFD Account is distinct from any other account for the purposes of this Schedule and is thus distinct from the trading account generally as well as the margin account. One consequence is that margins/collateral required for the Client's trading in CFDs shall be separately provided. For the avoidance of doubt, any interim excess in margin or collateral the Client may have with the Broker for the trading account or in his margin account shall be disregarded in calculating available margin/collateral for the Client's trading in CFDs under the CFD Account.
- 1.4 Where the CFD Transactions are intended to be effected on and subject to the relevant rules of any exchange, market or trading platform (collectively, the "Relevant Rules"), then it shall be a condition to the Client being permitted to effect any such CFD Transaction that the Client agrees and is deemed by giving any order for such CFD Transaction to have agreed to ensure that it has read and understood the Relevant Rules for effecting such CFD Transactions and ensured that it shall at all times take no action or fail to take any action referable to any trading or transaction it effects or intend to effect with respect to such CFD Transactions that would cause the Broker to be deemed in breach of the Relevant Rules. The Client in particular is assumed to and should in particular ensure that it is familiar with the requirements of the Relevant Rules as to the provision of margins and settlement terms for the CFD Transactions.

2. CFD PRODUCT HIGHLIGHT SHEET

- 2.1 Notwithstanding these terms and conditions under this Schedule and the relevant account opening form, the Client agrees to be bound by the CFD Product Highlight Sheet and the Broker's website, including the initial and maintenance margin requirements, margin calls, trading hours and list of available underlying financial instruments, markets, and exchanges. If any terms and conditions in the CFD Product Highlight Sheet and the Broker's website are in conflict with or are inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Schedule, the terms and conditions of the CFD Product Highlight Sheet is intended to and shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency.

3. CFD

3.1 The Client acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) trading in CFDs involves trading on the outcome of the price of a financial instrument (e.g. equity) or of an index and the Client will not be entitled to delivery of, or be required to deliver, the underlying financial instrument nor ownership thereof or any other interest therein;
- (b) the Broker conducts CFD trading with clients (including the Client) in relation to individual financial instruments and all CFD trades conducted are margined products unless specifically closed out by the Client or otherwise pursuant to the terms in this Schedule. The Client acknowledges that the Broker is entitled to but not obliged to hedge its own exposure ("Hedge Position") under a CFD Transaction with the Client by entering into with, or acquiring from, a third party or other instrument or financial product. The Client thus acknowledges that the Broker will charge and the Client shall pay such charge ("interest") with respect each of its CFD open positions of such amount and/or at such rate as the Broker may from time to time notify the Client and which rate may incorporate any market charges incurred by the Broker in relation to a Hedge Position;
- (c) all CFD Transactions are effected as between the Client and the Broker on a principal to principal basis and as such the Client further acknowledges and accepts the following:
 - (i) that the Broker owes the Client no fiduciary duties or any duty of good faith or reasonable care except as specifically and expressly provided for in the terms under this Schedule;
 - (ii) that the Broker is not acting as fiduciary or adviser to the Client, nor is there any fiduciary or adviser relationship between the Broker and the Client; and
 - (iii) the Client will effect its own due diligence and will make its own independent decision and ensure that in each case a CFD Transaction is suitable, appropriate and proper for the Client based on its own judgment and upon advice from such legal, tax, regulatory, accounting and/or other advisers as the Client deems necessary and appropriate before the Client enters into or offers to enter into the same, the Client being fully aware that it is entering into the transaction on a strictly buyer beware basis;
- (d) notwithstanding that trading in CFDs does not give rise to the Client having any proprietary rights to the underlying financial instrument, the Client acknowledges that the Client may, in certain circumstances, including but not limited to provisions under the Malaysian Code on Take-Overs and Mergers 2016, have disclosure or other obligations as if the Client had effected a transaction to buy or sell the underlying financial instrument and thus agrees to abide by all disclosure or other obligations under any applicable laws where relevant;
- (e) that although the Broker will, in its sole and absolute discretion in good faith, provide the Client with information on actual and potential CFD Transactions, it is the Client's responsibility to ask the Broker for any explanations that the Client may require in order for it and/or its advisers to assess the risks attached to any such transaction and its suitability for the Client;

- (f) that information and explanations related to the terms and conditions of any CFD Transaction shall not be considered investment advice or a recommendation to enter into any CFD Transaction;
- (g) that the Client has not and shall not rely on any communication (written or oral) from the Broker as legal, tax, regulatory or accounting advice, nor (except as provided for under the next sub-section below) as investment or financial or other advice;
- (h) that the Broker is not giving the Client advice on the merits of any CFD Transaction or any particular aspect of it unless, in relation to a particular potential or actual CFD Transaction, the Broker has expressly acknowledged in writing that the Broker is doing so; and that where such advice is given, it is subject to any agreed terms between the parties for the giving of such advice; and
- (i) that no communication (written or oral) received from the Broker, whether before a CFD Transaction is entered into or before it is terminated or expires, shall be deemed to be an assurance, guarantee or opinion as to the anticipated results of any CFD Transaction.

4. THE CLIENT'S RESPONSIBILITY

4.1 The Client shall be responsible for:

- (a) monitoring the amount of CFD Margin deposited with the Broker from time to time against the amount of CFD Margin currently required and any additional CFD Margin that may be necessary for the purpose of complying with obligations under Clause 7 of this Schedule;
- (b) ensuring that monies sent to the Broker are correctly designated, including where applicable, that the monies are by way of CFD Margin and to which CFD Account they should be applied; and
- (c) notifying the Broker immediately in writing of any material change in the Client's financial circumstances and/or any material change to any of the information given by the Client in the relevant account opening form (including address and contact details).

5. PROCEDURES ON ACCEPTANCE OF THE CLIENT'S ORDERS

5.1 The Client may instruct the Broker to execute any CFD Transaction by giving an instruction to the Broker in accordance with Clause 15 of this Schedule, and supplemented by this Clause.

5.2 The Client further acknowledges that the Broker may elect not to enter into any CFD Transaction with the Client in its sole and absolute discretion, including situations where the Broker has not satisfied itself that it can hedge its exposure or where, in a respect of a CFD Transaction relating to specific securities of a company, that company undergoes insolvency or Corporate Actions (as defined in Clause 11(c) of this Schedule).

5.3 The Broker shall be allowed such amount of time to act and implement the Client's instruction as may be reasonable, having regard to the systems and operations of the Broker and the other circumstances then prevailing. This may cause delays in the processing of the instruction and the execution/entry into a CFD Transaction, and the Client may receive an order execution based on the price of the underlying financial instrument existing in the market at the time of execution (being such time as the Broker agrees to accept and actually accepts the Client's instruction). The price may be different from the price at which the underlying financial instrument was trading when the Client's instruction was received. The Broker shall not be responsible or liable for any loss arising from any delay on the part of the Broker in accepting the Client's instruction.

- 5.4 Without prejudice to the Broker's general discretion to decline a Client's instruction, the Broker further reserves the right at its sole and absolute discretion, in periods of extreme market volatility and heavy trading volume, to limit and restrict the types of orders it will consider accepting from the Client. Under certain circumstances, the Broker may also decline to consider or accept stop orders. Furthermore, the Broker retains the right at its sole and absolute discretion and without prior notice, to prioritise the consideration of the clients' instructions (including the Client's instructions) such that orders based on the market price of the underlying financial instrument may have higher priority for the Broker's consideration over those based on limit prices. The Broker shall bear no responsibility or liability whatsoever for failing to consider or accept any instruction of the Client or for exercising or failing to exercise any discretion, power or authority conferred upon the Broker by this Schedule.
- 5.5 If under the Relevant Rules, a CFD can only be transacted in a specified amount or in multiples thereof, the Client must ensure that the contract quantity of the CFD Transaction set out in the Client's order is in the specified amount or a multiple thereof, as applicable. All CFD Transactions must be entered into in accordance with all Relevant Rules.

6. PRICING

- 6.1 The Broker may quote prices at which it may be prepared to deal in CFDs with the Client through such medium and manner as approved by the Broker from time to time and may, in its sole and absolute discretion, quote different prices and charge commission and other charges at different rates to different clients. Upon the Client's request, the Broker may quote a higher or lower figure for each CFD Transaction as compared to then prevailing market prices for the underlying financial instruments. The Client may only enter into a CFD at the Broker's currently quoted price for the given CFD requested for by the Client and within any applicable minimum and/or maximum trade size, unless otherwise agreed to by the Broker.
- 6.2 The Broker may, at its sole and absolute discretion, also notify the Client of certain instruments in respect of which the Broker will not quote, restrictions on the amount for which the Broker will quote, or other conditions that may apply to the Broker's quote, but any such notification shall not be binding on the Broker.
- 6.3 For avoidance of doubt, it is acknowledged that the Broker's quotes are all in the nature of "invitations to treat" and not offers. As such, the Client further acknowledges that none of such quotes may be accepted by the Client and thereby conclude a CFD Transaction between the Client and the Broker. The Client's giving of instructions based on such quotes shall be the relevant offers open for acceptance by the Broker and thereby concluding a CFD Transaction.
- 6.4 Despite the preceding, the Client acknowledges that it is possible that errors may occur in the prices quoted by the Broker which may be due to errors in the prices of the underlying financial instruments and which errors are carried over into the instructions given by the Client. In such circumstances, without prejudice to any rights it may have under statute or common law, neither party will be bound by any contract which purports to have been made (whether or not confirmed by the Broker) at a price which was, or ought reasonably to have been known to either party to be materially incorrect at the time of the contract. The Broker also reserves the right to cancel such a contract. The party asserting that the contract is avoided under this Clause shall give notice to the other within seven (7) days of the contract. If the Client gives notice to the Broker under this Clause, the Broker shall determine, acting reasonably, whether the price quoted was materially incorrect. Without limiting the generality of this Schedule, save where there has been, and only to the extent of, any fraud by the Broker, the Broker does not accept any responsibility or liability for any loss suffered by the Client as a result of the Client's reliance on a price which the Client knew, or ought reasonably to have known, to be materially incorrect.

- 6.5 A quoted price may change at any time after it has been quoted and prior to the use thereof by the Client in making an offer to enter into a CFD Transaction based on such quoted price. Quotes, which are given by the Broker as "indication only" or which have been communicated to the Client as being no longer valid cannot be used by the Client as a basis for making an offer to enter into a CFD Transaction.

7. CFD MARGIN REQUIREMENTS

- 7.1 The Client shall deposit, maintain in each relevant CFD Account and/or, as otherwise required by the Broker, provide the Broker with margin ("CFD Margin") in such form and amounts at such times and in respect of such CFD Account as the Broker may from time to time in its sole and absolute discretion require, whether or not such requirement of the Broker is identical to or reflects or is greater than any applicable requirements of any governmental or self-regulatory organisation in any jurisdiction (including any exchange or market or operator of a relevant trading platform) which is required to be maintained by the Broker and/or the Client for CFD Transactions for the CFD Account.
- 7.2 The Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Broker may, in its sole and absolute discretion, with or without notice to the Client, vary the CFD Margin requirements ("CFD Margin Requirements") for any CFD Account at any time and by any level and may also stipulate that such CFD Margin Requirements shall apply to existing positions as well as new positions in the CFD Transactions affected by such change.
- 7.3 The Client hereby also acknowledges and agrees that the Broker may, in certain market conditions, effect an immediate change in CFD Margin limits or levels and/or require additional CFD Margin (by any method of communication specified under this Schedule) to be deposited immediately or within a very short period of time which may be less than twenty-four (24) hours ("CFD Margin Call"), and waives any right to object on the grounds that such CFD Margin Call is unreasonable. No previous CFD Margin Requirements shall set a precedent or bind the Broker. The Client hereby also acknowledges and agrees to provide such additional CFD Margin immediately upon the CFD Margin Call, provided that, notwithstanding any such CFD Margin Call, the Broker may at any time exercise its rights set out in Clause 10 below and refuse any request by the Client to enter into any further CFD Transactions until the Broker has confirmed receipt of the called CFD Margin in cleared funds.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Broker may make CFD Margin Calls, the Client agrees that it is the Client's principal responsibility to monitor any open CFD positions and all other relevant factors used to calculate CFD Margin payable and the Broker is not obliged to make CFD Margin

Calls of the Client at all or within any specific time period nor shall the Broker be responsible for or liable to the Client for any failure by the Broker to contact the Client. Without prejudice to the Client's obligation to pay CFD Margin immediately when the same becomes due, the Client must notify the Broker immediately if the Client cannot, or believes it would not be able to, meet a CFD Margin Call when due.

- 7.4 In making such determination in respect of the CFD Margin provided for any CFD Account, the Broker shall not be required to take into consideration margin held by the Broker for the Client in respect of any other CFD Account. The Client acknowledges that the CFD Margin may be held and used to secure the performance of the Client's obligations as well as for such other purposes as the applicable laws may permit or stipulate for the CFD Transactions traded.
- 7.5 All CFD Margin shall be held by the Broker, notwithstanding any provision or instructions to the contrary, as continuing security and shall be subject to a general lien and right of set off in favour of the Broker for any and all of the Client's liabilities to the Broker (whether contingent or actual) under this Schedule or otherwise, and the Broker may realise any of the CFD Margin of the Client as provided for in this Schedule.
- 7.6 No interest shall be paid on any type of CFD Margin deposited by Client with the Broker and the Client acknowledges and consents that interest earned on the CFD Margin deposited under this Schedule may be retained by the Broker for its own account and benefit.
- 7.7 The Client shall at its own cost and at the Broker's request, execute and do all such deeds, acts and things (including the performance of such further acts or the execution and delivery of any additional instruments or documents) as the Broker may require for the purposes of this Schedule, including perfecting the Broker's rights to the CFD Margin provided by the Client.
- 7.8 If the Client fails to meet the CFD Margin call, the Broker may (without prejudice to any other rights or powers the Broker may have under this Schedule or otherwise) in its absolute discretion and without creating an obligation to do so, close out, without notice, any or all of the Client's open CFD contracts in respect of which demands for CFD Margin call have not been met.
- 7.9 Each CFD Margin call shall be satisfied within the time stipulated by the Broker (in its absolute discretion) for satisfaction of the CFD Margin call or, in the absence of such stipulation, the Client is required to comply before the commencement of trading in the following day on which the relevant exchange, as applicable are open for business. The Broker may close out all or any open positions of a Client where the Client fails to comply with a demand for margin within a reasonable time after a CFD Margin call has been made by the Broker.

8. WITHDRAWAL OF CFD MARGIN

- 8.1 For so long as the Client owes moneys or obligations (of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising) to the Broker, the Client shall not be entitled to withdraw CFD Margin from the Broker. The Broker may at any time withhold any CFD Margin of the Client pending full settlement of all such moneys or obligations of the Client. Until such time, the CFD Margin will not constitute a debt due from the Broker to the Client, nor will the Client have any right to receive repayment of these funds. Margin excess shall not be available for withdrawal.

9. OPPOSITE POSITIONS PROHIBITED

The Client acknowledges that it is not entitled to and shall not hold simultaneous opposing CFD positions on the same underlying financial instrument. For example, if the Client originally placed a sell order and subsequently placed a buy order for a CFD on the same underlying financial instrument, this will close all or part of the Client's original sell trade and may create a new open CFD position. If the Client has more than one open CFD position on the same underlying financial instrument, such trades (or part thereof) will be closed in the order "First In, First Out" (commonly known as "FIFO").

10. DEFAULT AND EXTRAORDINARY EVENT/ CLOSURE OF ACCOUNTS

- 10.1 A "Default" for the purpose of this Section shall be deemed to occur if any of the events pertaining to a Default under Clause 16 of this Schedule.

PROVIDED in the case of CFD Transactions effected otherwise than on an exchange, in the event of a Default under Clauses 16.1(c) and 16.1(d) of this Schedule, all outstanding CFD Transactions (including any CFD Transaction which has not been performed and in respect of which the value date as determined by the Broker is on or precedes the date on which the Broker terminates such CFD Transaction) entered between the Client and the Broker shall be deemed immediately liquidated at prevailing prices (or, if not available, at such prices the Broker deems fit) and the amounts resulting converted into Ringgit Malaysia or such other currency as the Broker may from time to time use as the principal currency of its business (together with all CFD Margin duly converted into Ringgit Malaysia or such other currency as the Broker may from time to time use as the principal currency of its business) at the Broker's prevailing rates and set-off against each other and the CFD Margin prior to the Broker resorting to its rights below and/or payment or repayment to the Client (if applicable).

- 10.2 Without prejudice to any other right of the Broker hereunder or otherwise at law, in the event of Default, the Broker may (but is not obliged to) immediately or at any time thereafter, with or without notice to the Client, take any one or more of the actions in Clause 16.5 of this Schedule, and:

- (a) liquidate the CFD Margin or part thereof at a price which the Broker deems appropriate in the circumstances;
- (b) vary the commission rates, the financing charge, any buying or selling spreads or any other applicable fees or charges; and
- (c) call upon any security including any guarantees and letters of credit which may have been issued to or in favour of the Broker as security for the CFD Account(s).

- 10.3 If there occurs in relation to any CFD Transaction (otherwise than on an exchange) or otherwise in relation to a CFD Account(s) an Extraordinary Event (as defined below), the Broker shall have the sole and absolute discretion to determine any adjustments or action necessary in relation to such CFD Transaction or any or all CFD Transactions or otherwise to a CFD Account(s) in view of the Extraordinary Event. Such adjustments or actions may include altering or varying the quantities of currencies or financial instruments or the exchange rates or specifications of currencies or instruments bought or sold in respect of such CFD Transaction or some or all CFD Transactions, or terminating the CFD Transaction in question or some or all CFD Transactions, or a CFD Account(s) or otherwise. Provided the Broker undertakes such action in good faith, any such adjustment or action shall be binding on the Client who shall be liable for any additional loss incurred by the Broker on the account of the Client or which the Client is consequently liable for as a result of such adjustment or action

- 10.4 An "Extraordinary Event" shall mean any event which the Broker in good faith believes to have a material adverse effect on any CFD Transaction and shall include any form of exchange control restriction, requirement of whatsoever nature or any technical issues affecting availability, convertibility, credit or transfers of currencies, financial instruments or funds (including scenarios where the price of any underlying financial instrument is not available on the relevant exchange), any form of debt or other moratorium on jurisdictions, individuals or entities, any devaluation, redenomination or demonetisation of the underlying currencies or financial instruments of any CFD Transaction, any form of restriction or requirement and/or improper conduct by the Client in relation to a CFD Account, which in the Broker's good faith opinion adversely alters or changes the rights or obligations which the Broker in good faith undertook upon the establishment of such CFD Transaction.
- 10.5 The CFD Account may also be terminated as of right without the need for any reason whatsoever by the Broker or the Client giving the other party not less than five (5) days' notice in writing. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Broker in any event reserves the right not to disclose the reason for terminating the account. Such notice to terminate the CFD Account shall not be a waiver of all accrued obligations of each party in respect of the CFD Account and these accrued obligations shall continue to be governed by these terms until such obligations are performed. The Client accepts that during the notice period, the Client can only liquidate outstanding positions and is not allowed to put on new positions in the CFD Account.
- 10.6 Prior to the date of the termination of any CFD Account, the Client shall instruct the Broker as to the proper disposal or transfer of money and other properties of the Client in relation to such CFD Account. If the Client fails to do so, the Broker may exercise any of its rights as if a Default had occurred in respect of the Client. Nothing in this Clause shall prejudice any of the Broker's other rights under this Schedule.
- 10.7 To the fullest extent permitted by the law, the Client acknowledges and agrees that the Broker is not intended to have any liability and shall not be responsible for or liable to the Client for any loss whatsoever that may arise or that may be suffered or incurred by the Client as a result of a termination of the CFD Account or a relevant primary service or part thereof by the Broker or any of its actions under this Clause. Any fees, expenses, costs and other charges of the Broker accrued or incurred up to the effective date of termination shall be paid by the Client. After the termination of the CFD Account or the relevant primary service, the Broker shall close the CFD Account at such time that it deems appropriate.

11. ADJUSTMENTS AND CORPORATE ACTIONS

- 11.1 Without prejudice to any other right of the Broker hereunder or otherwise, if the underlying financial instrument of the CFD on which the Client is trading becomes subject to possible adjustments as a result of:
- (a) a subdivision, consolidation or reclassification of shares, or a free distribution of shares to existing holders by way of bonus, capitalisation or similar issue;
 - (b) a distribution to existing holders of the underlying financial instrument of additional shares, other share capital or securities granting the right to payment of dividends and/or proceeds of liquidation of the issuer equal proportionately with such payments to holders of the underlying financial instrument granting the right to a distribution of shares or to purchase, subscribe, or receive shares; or

- (c) any event in respect of the shares analogous to any of the foregoing events or otherwise having a dilutive or concentrative effect on the market value of the shares (such events, "Corporate Actions"), the Broker may determine the appropriate adjustment, if any, to be made to the contract value of that CFD and/or the related contract quantity to account for the dilutive or concentrative effect necessary to preserve the economic equivalent prior to that event, to be effective as of the date determined by the Broker and such determination shall be conclusive and binding on the Client. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Broker reserves the right to close all open CFD positions relating to the underlying financial instrument before the occurrence of the abovementioned adjustments.

12. MARKET DISRUPTION, SUSPENSION OF TRADING, DELISTING OF UNDERLYING FINANCIAL INSTRUMENT OR CLOSURE OF HEDGE POSITION

12.1 On the occurrence of any one, some or all of the following circumstances or events:

- (a) the underlying financial instrument on which the Client is trading is the subject of a take-over offer or merger offer or the issuer of such equity has entered into or is the subject of insolvency or liquidation proceedings;
- (b) the underlying financial instrument on which the Client is trading is suspended or delisted from trading;
- (c) any event which disrupts the market, including the suspension of or limitation of trading by reason of movements in price exceeding limits permitted by the relevant exchange or otherwise howsoever and which is, in the sole and absolute determination of the Broker, material;
- (d) any breakdown or failure of transmission, communication or computer facilities, interruption of power supply or electronic or communications equipment failure; or
- (e) the Broker's counterparty in a Hedge Position unwinds or closes out the Hedge Position or for any other reason the Broker is no longer able to maintain the Hedge Position; the Broker may in its sole and absolute discretion with or without notice to the Client (and without prejudice to any other rights or remedies it may otherwise have under the terms and conditions of this Schedule or at law) take any or all of the following actions:
 - (i) close any or all open CFD positions, refuse any trades, cancel any orders and fill any orders in each case at such level as the Broker may consider in good faith to be appropriate in all the circumstances;
 - (ii) require open long CFD positions to be settled in full from the date of suspension or such date(s) which the Broker shall determine;

CLIENT AGREEMENT (Corporate)

- (iii) impose mandatory maintenance CFD Margin Requirements on open short CFD positions based on the last done market price of the underlying financial instrument prior to suspension (or on such date(s) which the Broker shall determine);
- (iv) close or terminate the CFD position if the underlying financial instrument is delisted or suspended for an unduly long period of time and cash-settle the contract at such price(s) which the Broker shall determine;
- (v) suspend or modify the application of any of the terms and conditions of this Schedule to the extent that it is impossible or not reasonably practicable to comply with them; or
- (vi) take all such other actions as the Broker deems appropriate in the circumstances.

13. ACCOUNT ADJUSTMENT FOR DIVIDENDS

13.1 An adjustment to the Client's CFD Account shall be made with reference to any dividend attributable to the underlying financial instrument of any CFD, or in the case of an applicable index CFD (i.e. an index CFD specifically notified to be subject to such dividend adjustment in a relevant CFD Disclosure Document) the dividend attributable to the component security of the index, and shall be made as follows:

- (a) where the Client holds a long CFD position, the Broker shall adjust the account in favour of the Client by the dividend (net of relevant taxes) per share or pro-rated in the case of an index CFD, multiplied by the contract quantity; and
- (b) where the Client holds a short CFD position, the Broker shall adjust the CFD Account in favour of the Broker by the gross dividend per share or pro-rated in the case of an index CFD, multiplied by the contract quantity.

the Broker reserves the right to make any further adjustments to the amount credited to (or debited from) the Client's CFD Account to take into account any fees imposed by the Broker and/or exchange rate risks arising from the price of the CFD Transactions.

14. FEES, INTEREST, COMMISSIONS AND CHARGES

14.1 The Client shall promptly pay all fees, interest, commissions, transaction costs and charges at such rates and in such manner as the Broker may in its sole and absolute discretion impose and stipulate from time to time with respect to the execution, performance and/or settlement of any contract or otherwise for the maintenance of the CFD Account. The Client shall make payment to the Broker's order promptly of any outstanding sum on the due date of the relevant contract, or upon demand by the Broker as provided for in this Schedule.

14.2 The Broker shall be entitled to charge interest on any sum or payment due to the Broker from the Client at such rate and calculated and/or compounded in such manner as the Broker may, in its sole and absolute discretion, impose and determine from time to time and to debit the Client's CFD Account in respect of the interest due. In the event that there are insufficient cleared funds in the Client's CFD Account, the Client acknowledges that any amount due and payable from the Client under this Clause is a debt due and owing by the Client to the Broker.

CLIENT AGREEMENT (Corporate)

15. INSTRUCTIONS

- 15.1 The Client may give instructions to the Broker to operate a CFD Account or to execute a CFD Transaction.
- 15.2 When giving instructions, Client is solely responsible for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of all instructions, and that the Client does not give conflicting, inconsistent or contradictory instructions to the Broker. When placing contingent instructions, such as “stop-loss” or “stop-limit” orders, the Client acknowledges that such instructions will not necessarily limit the Client’s losses to the intended amounts as it may be impossible to act on or to execute such instructions under certain market conditions. For over-the-counter CFD Transactions, the Client further acknowledges that the prices and characteristics of such CFD Transactions are individually negotiated and there is no central source for obtaining prices and hence the prices for such CFD Transactions may not be the best prices available to the Client.
- 15.3 The Broker is not obliged to act on any instructions of the Client or enter into any CFD Transaction with the Client for any reason and without giving any reason therefore and the Broker shall not be responsible for or liable to the Client whatsoever as a result of such refusal to act, including if:
- (a) any instructions are, in the Broker’s opinion, unclear or ambiguous or inconsistent with any other instructions;
 - (b) any instructions might cause the Broker to contravene any applicable laws (whether or not having legal and binding effect);
 - (c) the Broker is unable to verify the identity of the Client to its satisfaction;
 - (d) the Broker has any doubt on the authenticity, clarity or completeness of the instruction; and
 - (e) the form or content of such instruction is not in accordance with the requirements or policies or practices as prescribed by the Broker from time to time.
- 15.4 Notwithstanding the above, the Broker may:
- (a) act upon any instruction which the Broker believes to be given by the Client without inquiry as to the identity or authority of the person giving or purporting to give such instruction or the authenticity and correctness thereof or the purpose or propriety of any instruction;
 - (b) act on incomplete or unclear instructions if the Broker reasonably believes the Broker can correct the information without seeking clarification or confirmation from the Client, in accordance with any reasonable interpretation thereof which any officer, employee, agent, representative or any intermediary, believes in good faith to be the correct interpretation;
 - (c) if the Broker receives conflicting, inconsistent, contradictory or multiple instructions, and determines the order of acting without seeking clarification or confirmation from the Client;
 - (d) at any time change or implement new security procedures or features relating to modes of instructions, verifying the Client’s identity or otherwise as the Broker may think are necessary; and/or
 - (e) require confirmation of any instruction from the Client in any form or manner as it deems appropriate.

CLIENT AGREEMENT (Corporate)

- 15.5 The Broker shall not be responsible or liable for acting on any instructions which the Broker believes in good faith originates from the Client or an Authorised Person (as defined below). The Client will provide the Broker with the names and specimen signature(s) of the person(s) authorised to give instructions on the Client's behalf ("Authorised Persons") in writing and give the Broker prompt written notice of any changes thereto. Until the Broker's receipt of such notice, the Broker may rely on the last list of Authorised Persons on the Broker's records. the Broker may verify and satisfy itself as to the identity of the person purporting to give instructions on behalf of the Client or the source and origin of such instructions and the Broker may refuse to rely or act upon any such instruction unless and until the Broker is satisfied as to the matters on which the Broker sought verification.
- 15.6 CFD Transactions carried out by the Broker acting on the Client's instructions made or given or purporting to be made or given by the Client or by any other person on behalf of the Client shall be binding on the Client for all purposes regardless of the circumstances prevailing or the nature of the CFD Transaction or arrangement or the amount of money involved and notwithstanding any error or misunderstanding or lack of clarity in the terms of such instructions or other communications. This is unless the Client has given an instruction to withdraw, cancel, revoke or vary a previous instruction and (a) the Broker has not in the interim executed such instruction or taken irrevocable action for its execution (whether by onward instruction to an intermediary to execute such instruction or otherwise); (b) the Broker is able, with respect to such unexecuted instruction to withdraw, cancel or revoke such instruction before its execution or before irrevocable action is taken for its execution and has effectively done so; and (c) the withdrawal, cancellation, revocation or variation as the case may be, will not prejudice the Broker's position. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where, after a CFD Transaction is carried out, the Broker forms the belief that there was an error or misunderstanding or lack of clarity in the terms of such instructions or other communications or an Authorised Person has acted in excess of his authority or the CFD Transaction would infringe any applicable laws, the Broker may, in its sole and absolute discretion, withdraw, cancel, revoke or treat such instruction as void from the outset or otherwise, and the Broker shall not be responsible or liable for any loss arising from such actions.
- 15.7 In the event that the Broker decides to act on any instruction or is otherwise under an obligation to act on any instruction, the Broker shall be allowed such amount of time to act and implement any instruction as may be reasonable having regard to the systems and operations of the Broker and the other circumstances then prevailing and shall not be responsible or liable for any loss arising from any delay on the part of the Broker in acting on any such instruction.
- 15.8 Where the Broker has executed any CFD Transaction or CFD Transactions on behalf of the Client in accordance with an instruction, the Client shall bear full responsibility for any filing, registration, notification or other compliance or relevant requirements in respect of such CFD Transactions (including any notification to a stock exchange or regulatory body in respect of any position limits, substantial shareholding or any connected or related party transaction). The Broker shall have no obligation whatsoever to issue any notification, warning or advice to the Client in this respect.
- 15.9 The Broker may record, by any means and at any time, any communications through any medium between the Broker and the Client or any representative or agent of the Client using any recording apparatus. Any such recording may be used in evidence against the Client. The Broker's record of any such instructions shall be conclusive and binding. The Broker may, in accordance with its internal procedures and policies and business requirements, periodically destroy such recordings without giving any reason and without having to account to any Client for the same. No adverse inferences shall be drawn against the Broker for not having made any such recording, or for having destroyed such recording in the ordinary course of its business or pursuant to routine procedures or for not providing, or producing, any such recordings.
